

APA DOCUMENTATION STYLE

APA Documentation Style is a method for listing the sources you use so that your readers can identify and find those sources. It is commonly used in the social sciences, for example, business, history, psychology and sociology. The examples below can be templates for your own citations.

CITING SOURCES IN THE BODY OF YOUR PAPER

Cite entire works within your paper with parenthetical author-date references (Foster, 2003), but if you are using direct quotations with quotation marks then use author-date-page number references (Foster, 2003, p. 311). These citations will correspond to sources listed alphabetically by author at the end of your paper in a References section. Sources without an author are listed by their title.

CITING BOOKS [More information is available in the Manual: pp. 202-5*]

Formula:

Author, A. A. (Date of Publication). Title of book. Location: Publisher.

Example:

Gladwell, M. (2008). Outliers: The story of success. New York: Little, Brown.

CITING JOURNAL ARTICLES [More information: pp. 198-202*]

Formula:

Author, A. A. (Year of Publication). Title of article. Title of Journal, volume, page numbers. doi

Examples:

Sevincer, A. T., & Oettingen, G. (2009). Alcohol breeds empty goal commitments. Journal of Abnormal Psychology, 118, 623-633. doi: 10.1037/a0016199

Hunter, W. S. (1946). Psychology in the war. American Psychologist, 1, 479-492.

- Include the digital object identifier (DOI) if it is available.
- There is no period after the DOI.
- If there is no DOI and you retrieved it online, include the home page address of the journal by using the sentence: Retrieved from <http://www.xxxxxx>
- If there is no journal home page address then skip it.
- If each issue begins on page 1, give the issue number in parentheses after the volume number.
- Magazines are cited in a similar way but include the month of publication & the issue number.
- APA Style no longer requires the date you accessed the article nor the database's name.

CITING NEWSPAPER ARTICLES [More information: p. 200*]

Formula:

Author, A. A. (Year, Month Day). Article title. Newspaper Title, pp. X, XX.

Example:

Segal, D. (2009, September 7). Gadget makers can find thief, but don't ask. The New York Times, pp. A1, B2.

APA DOCUMENTATION STYLE

CITING NON-PAPER SOURCES

1. The Manual says, “Choose the example that is most like your source and follow that format.” The Manual has 77 different examples of citations. The Manual also says, “When in doubt, provide more information rather than less.” More information is available online at www.apastyle.org
2. For works with no author, move the title to the author position (before the date of publication).
3. Capitalize only the first word of the title and of the subtitle, if any, and any proper nouns. Do not place quotation marks around the title. Put the title in italics.
4. Use (n.d.) when a source does not have a date.
5. Do not add a hyphen to a URL if it is longer than one line: break it before most punctuation.
